Overview of First Things First

On November 7, 2006, Arizonans made an historic decision on behalf of our state's youngest citizens. By majority vote, they made a commitment to all Arizona children age five and younger, that children would have the tools they need to arrive at school healthy and ready to succeed. The voters backed that promise with an 80-cent per pack increase on tobacco products to provide dedicated and sustainable funding for early childhood services for our youngest children. The initiative created the statewide First Things First Board and the 31 Regional Partnership Councils that share the responsibility of ensuring that these early childhood funds are spent on strategies that will result in improved education and health outcomes for kids age five and younger.

First Things First is designed to meet the diverse needs of Arizona communities. The regional councils are comprised of community volunteers, with each member representing a specific segment of the community that has a role in ensuring that Arizona's children grow up to be ready for school, set for life: parents, leaders of faith communities, tribal representatives, educators, health professionals, business leaders, and philanthropists.

First Things First Strategic Direction

First Things First's commitment to young children means more than simply funding programs and services. It means having a shared vision about what being prepared for kindergarten actually means. First Things First specifies that programs and services funded by the First Things First Board and Regional Partnership Councils are to address one or more of the following Goal Areas as defined by the statute:

- Improve the quality of early childhood development and health programs.
- Increase the access to quality early childhood development and health programs.
- Increase access to preventive health care and health screenings for children through age five.
- Offer parent and family support and education concerning early childhood development and literacy.
- Provide professional development and training for early childhood development and health providers.
- Increase coordination of early childhood development and health programs and provide public information about the importance of early childhood development and health.

The First Things First Board established a strategic framework with a set of school readiness indicators that provide a comprehensive composite measure to show whether young children are ready for success as they prepare to enter kindergarten. The strategies funded by First Things First work collectively to develop a comprehensive system across the state and regionally to address the school readiness indicators. The First Things First Board and Regional Partnership Councils determine the priorities and strategies to be funded across the state and throughout the regions assessing the challenges and building on the resources and assets in place.

School Readiness Indicators

1. #/% children demonstrating school readiness at kindergarten entry in the development domains of social-emotional, language and literacy, cognitive, and motor and physical
2. #/% of children enrolled in an early care and education program with a Quality First rating of 3-5 stars
3. #/% of children with special needs enrolled in an inclusive early care and education program with a Quality First rating of 3-5 stars
4. #/% of families that spend no more than 10% of the regional median family income on quality care and education with a Quality First rating of 3-5 stars
5. % of children with newly identified developmental delays during the kindergarten year
6. #/% of children entering kindergarten exiting preschool special education to regular education
7. #/% of children ages 2-4 at a healthy weight (Body Mass Index-BMI)
8. #/% of children receiving at least six well child visits within the first 15 months of life
9. #/% of children age 5 with untreated tooth decay
10. % of families who report they are competent and confident about their ability to support their child's safety, health and well being

What is the Funding Source?

First Things First provides for distribution of funding through both statewide and regional grants. Statewide programs are considered those implemented across regional boundaries and are designed to benefit Arizona's children as a whole. Regional funding is based on the approval of the Regional Partnership Council funding plans submitted to the FTF Board each year.

This Request for Grant Application (RFGA) is specifically dedicated to funding regional programs. The Regional Partnership Council that is involved in the release of this RFGA is the Coconino Regional Partnership Council.

Who is Eligible to Apply for This Funding Opportunity?

First Things First awards grants to:

- Non-profit 501 (c) (3) organizations providing services in Arizona (both secular and faith-based)
- Units of Arizona government (local, county and state entities as well as schools and school districts)
- Federally recognized Tribal governments or entities providing services within Arizona
- Arizona institutions of higher learning (colleges and universities)
- Private organizations providing services in Arizona

All potential applicants must demonstrate organizational, fiscal and programmatic capacity to meet the requirements described in the scope of work listed in this RFGA.

What is the Total Funding Amount Available in this Request for Grant Application?

This is a twelve (12) month contract for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2014 with an option for renewal for two (2), additional twelve (12) month periods. Total funds available are approximately $260,000 for the first funding period. First Things First reserves the right not to award the entire amount of available funds or to award an amount that is greater than the posted available funds. Renewal will be contingent upon satisfactory contract performance, evaluation and availability of funds. One or multiple awards may be made.

Scope of Work: What Strategy Will This Grant Fund and How Will It Make a Difference for Children?

Statement of Need

Numerous studies suggest that many primary care providers struggle to fulfill the care-coordination needs of children, youth, and families. The medical home model represents a standard of primary care where children and their families receive the care they need from a family physician, pediatrician or healthcare professional that they trust. A medical home addresses well-child care, acute care, and chronic care for all children from birth through their transition to adulthood.

An important component of a medical home is care coordination to provide linkages for children and their families with appropriate medical services and community resources in a coordinated effort to achieve optimal health. Effective care coordination begins with recognizing the relationship between the family, the health care provider and the care coordinator. It enhances access to needed services and resources, promotes optimal health and functioning of children, and supports improved quality of life.

Care is coordinated and integrated across all elements of the complex health care and social services systems (e.g., subspecialty care, hospitals, home health agencies, home visitation services) and the patient's community (e.g., family, schools, childcare, public and private community-based services). Care coordinators will enhance the abilities of the medical practice to assure that children receive appropriate medical care and developmental screening in a culturally and linguistically appropriate manner.

The Coconino Regional Partnership Council has identified the need to improve children's health and development across the Coconino region by ensuring that they have improved access to coordinated health care and related resources. Care Coordination strategies improve children's access to health care and meeting future developmental support by providing children and their families with effective care coordination in the health care system. Parents accessing care coordination services benefit from improved access to relevant and useful information about their child, as well as having someone available to answer their questions about child development, medical concerns, possible developmental delays, coordinate medical services, obtain well-child visits, family support and other services.

According to the Coconino Regional Partnership Council 2012 Needs and Assets report, there was a noticeably high percentage (12%) of births to teen mothers in the Coconino region in 2010. In the Hopi hub area, they had the highest rate of teen births at 19% in 2010. We know that teen parents and their children are often at greater risk of experiencing short and long-term health, economic, social, and academic challenges than parents who delay childbirth. Teen mothers, many of whom are single, can often have more difficulty in providing the support and nurturing that their child needs.

In the 2010 Parent Survey, 12.4% of respondents reported that they were unemployed and one in four parents reported that they went without being able to provide for basic needs. The most common basic needs not being met were medical care (53%), child care (28%), food (25%) and paying for utilities (23%). Most parents (90.6 %) reported that their child had health insurance, including 52.9% enrolled in the Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System (AHCCCS), 39.2% in job-based private pay insurance and 5.1 % enrolled in KidsCare. Most families reported accessing health care services through a private doctor/medical clinic (63%), followed by 16% accessing health care at a Native American health facility, 12.2% using a community health clinic, 8% using urgent care clinics and 5.7% using the emergency room or a hospital to access health care services.

Looking at early vaccination patterns helps us begin to understand how regularly young children are being seen for well-child checkups. We know that almost 32% of children ages 19 to 35 months did not complete their vaccination schedule in the Coconino region in 2010, while 93% of kindergarteners in Coconino County did receive their required vaccinations for the 2010/2011 school year. This pattern shows that it is likely that babies may not be visiting their primary doctors regularly for their well-child visits from birth to age 36 months and that their children are not being vaccinated routinely. Well child visits are important in ensuring that young children are developing normally, that their health needs are being met, and that if there are health or development issues, they are detected early and can be appropriately addressed. Due to these health and early development concerns for families with young children, the Coconino Regional Partnership Council believes that the Care Coordination - Medical Home strategy will help improve health outcomes by supporting the health and development of young children through improved coordination of health services. This strategy, along with the other family support and health strategies will work to improve the overall health and development of young children across the Coconino region.

The Coconino Regional Partnership Council has chosen to accept applications that propose using the Healthy Steps model (<http://www.healthysteps.org/>) for care coordination and to focus primarily on serving first time families with children birth through age three residing in the Coconino region that are not currently enrolled in a Care Coordination program. However, Care Coordination services will not be limited to only first time families and families with children birth to age three. Services could be provided to families with children birth through age five and families with more than one child. This strategy is considered a universal strategy. It is not expected that Care Coordination services will be available in all communities within the Coconino region during the first year of service. The Regional Council recommends that at least two Hub communities be served by this strategy in the first year with possible expansion to additional hubs in the second and third years.

First Things First School Readiness Indicators Related to This Strategy:

First Things First is seeking successful applicants to implement this strategy and work collectively with First Things First to impact the school readiness indicators below:

- #/% children demonstrating school readiness at kindergarten entry in the development domains of social-emotional, language and literacy, cognitive, and motor and physical
- % of children with newly identified developmental delays during the kindergarten year

First Things First Goal Area to be addressed:

- Health

Target Population to Serve

The Coconino Regional Partnership Council has chosen to accept applications that propose using the Healthy Steps Model for care coordination and to focus primarily on serving first time families with children birth through age three residing in the Coconino region that are not currently enrolled in a Care Coordination program. However, Care Coordination services will not be limited to only first time families and families with children birth to age three. Services could be provided to families with children birth through age five and families with more than one child.

The council has determined that the TSU of 433 children should be served as part of this strategy during first year. In the second year, it is expected that approximately 960 children should be enrolled.

A successful applicant will address the implementation of a Healthy Steps model of care coordination in at least two regional hubs described in the geographic boundary description below.

It is possible that more than one grantee will be awarded. One or both Healthy Steps approaches could be considered –Clinical Practice based and/or Community based.

Geographic Area

The Coconino Regional Partnership Council provides services throughout Coconino County and the Tribal lands, which include the portion of the Hopi Tribe in Navajo County, the San Juan Southern Paiute Tribe, the Kaibab Band of Paiute Indians Tribe and the Havasupai Tribe, and the zip codes that comprise the City of Winslow. The Coconino Region does not include the portion of the City of Sedona in Coconino County; the portion of the Hualapai Tribal lands in Coconino County; the portion of the Navajo Nation in Coconino County; nor the Forest Lakes Community located in Coconino County.

The six smaller regional Hub communities determined by the regional council are:

1. The northern part of the region makes up the Northern Hub, which includes the towns of Page and Fredonia, and the Kaibab Paiute Indian Reservation.

2. In the west part of the region, the Havasupai Reservation, located remotely at the bottom of the Grand Canyon and surrounding plateaus, makes up the Havasupai Hub.
3. The Grand Canyon Hub consists of the Grand Canyon Village, Tusayan, and Valle, and is located on the rim of the Grand Canyon.
4. The Hopi Hub consists of 12 villages and is located in the eastern part of this region.
5. The Southern Hub, the largest hub in the region, encompasses Flagstaff, Williams, and surrounding communities.
6. The Winslow Hub consists of Winslow, which is located in Navajo County, but is included in this region because residents primarily access resources in Flagstaff, approximately 60 miles west.

Description of Strategy Including Standards of Practice

Effective care coordination begins with recognizing the needs of families and the coordination between health providers and health systems. Care coordination is based on the relationship between the family, their health care providers and the care coordinator. This strategy enhances access to needed services and resources, promotes optimal health and functioning of children, and supports improved quality of life. The Standard of Practice can be found in Exhibit A.

Primary and pediatric care practices often struggle to fulfill all of the care coordination needs of the young children and the families they serve. Care coordination works to integrate services across all elements of the complex health care and social services systems, including subspecialty care, hospitals, home health services, and home visitation services, along with the patient's community including family, schools, childcare, and community-based services. Care coordinators enable medical practices to assure that their patients get the necessary services when and where they need it in a culturally and linguistically appropriate manner.

The Healthy Steps Model, one of two evidence based models expected in an application. The Coconino Regional Partnership Council recommends the Healthy Steps model for this strategy in order to position early childhood development specialists in primary care clinics to coordinate quality care and provide information and linkages that parents' want and need. The Healthy Steps model emphasizes a close relationship between health care professionals and parents in addressing the physical, emotional, and intellectual growth and development of children primarily from birth through three. The Healthy Steps specialist supports the primary medical provider by bringing more specialized knowledge to assist the medical provider in providing developmentally appropriate care. The Healthy Steps Model has been implemented nationwide and has been proven to have positive outcomes for children and families. The Healthy Steps model can be an integral part of meeting the medical home model criteria. It has been shown to lead to higher rates of immunizations, higher rates of timely and appropriate developmental screenings and identification of developmental delays, as well as providing a medical environment that is supportive of parents.

It is expected that the proposal defines how developmental screening will occur and it is expected that data related to screening will be reported to FTF via a data template.

Coordination and Collaboration

First Things First prioritizes coordination and collaboration among early childhood service providers as critical to developing a seamless service delivery system for children and families. Coordination and collaboration is described as two or more organizations working together in the delivery of programs and services to a defined population. As a result of coordination and collaboration, services are often easier to access and are implemented in a manner that is more responsive to the needs of the children and families. Coordination and collaboration may also result in greater capacity to deliver services because organizations are working together to identify and address gaps in service, which results in higher quality services and cost efficiency. Successful applicants must demonstrate capacity to work with and participate in coordination and collaboration activities occurring within the First Things First region being served. This may include but is not limited to engaging with other partners delivering the same or similar programs and services; clarifying target populations and outcomes; and defining processes and plans to reach desired outcomes. Depending upon the strategy, there may be local or statewide collaborative meetings which the applicant may be asked to attend, as noted in the Scope of Work. In order to accomplish this, applicants should plan the appropriate staffing and budget to support travel to and attendance at meetings within the regional area or at statewide meetings, as appropriate.

Quality Assurance Assessment

First Things First Quality Assurance (QA) system involves a continuum of performance and programmatic monitoring. The QA process is a team approach in collaboration with grant partners. A strength-based, comprehensive QA assessment will be used to evaluate the implementation of the strategy Standards of Practice and to support grant partners through technical assistance that addresses specific issues and concerns. The results of the QA process have the potential to inform and strengthen the development of the Standards of Practice and the early childhood development and health system. Successful applicants agree to actively participate in the QA process, which will involve a strategy specific QA assessment conducted by First Things First QA specialists during an on-site visit typically once during a contract cycle (every three years or so). The QA process includes adequate notice through pre-visit communication, the on-site visit and discussion, and follow-up report.

Program Specific Data Collection and First Things First Evaluation

Successful applicants agree to participate in the First Things First evaluation and any program specific evaluation or research efforts, including collaboration with evaluation-led child assessment activities. Collaborative activities may include tracking and reporting data pertaining to participant attendance, enrollment, and demographic information. In addition, applicants agree to allow First Things First and evaluation consultants of First Things First to observe program activities on site and successful applicants must collaborate with First Things First led and initiated evaluation activities to encourage parent consent for data collection. Data collection and First Things First evaluation activities are directly connected with the Goals, Performance Measures and Units of Service aligned to the strategy described in this RFGA. When services are provided to more than one region (multi-regional strategies), the grantee must collect and store client data for each region served through the grant agreement.

First Things First honors tribal ownership of data and recognizes communication is necessary with Arizona Tribes to determine what process/protocol is needed to obtain data. We further recognize Arizona Tribes as owners of their indigenous knowledge, cultural resources and intellectual property. To this end, it is imperative that all appropriate tribal approvals for data collection and submission to First Things First must be obtained.

Successful applicants must have capacity to collect and submit First Things First data requirements, securely and confidentially store client data, obtain client and any necessary tribal approvals for First Things First data submission, and utilize data to assess progress in achieving desired outcomes of the proposed strategy (see Exhibit G, Data Security Guidelines).

Units of Service, Target Service Numbers, and Performance Measures outline how quarterly data submissions will be evaluated according to the contracted deliverables and standards of practice for that contract. Additionally, they are used by First Things First to determine the key impacts of the strategies, programs and approaches being implemented.

Unit of Service and related Target Service Number:

A Unit of Service is a First Things First designated indicator of performance specific to each First Things First strategy. It is composed of a unit of measure and a number (Target Service Number). A Unit of Measure/Service can be a target population and/or a service/product that a grantee is expected to serve as part of an agreement. The Target Service Number represents the number of units (e.g. target population) proposed to be served or number of products/services proposed to be delivered during the contract year.

For example, for the First Things First strategy Home Visitation, the First Things First Unit of Service is “number of families served” and a Target Service Number of 50 represents the number of families the applicant proposes to serve during the contract period. All First Things First applicants must clearly state in the proposal a target service number for each strategy specific Unit of Service.

Performance Measures:

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e. Unit of Service); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. Performance measures may include the level or type of program activities conducted (e.g. serving families/children through home visits) and/or the direct services and products delivered by a program (e.g., providing scholarships).

All successful applicants will be provided with data reporting requirements by First Things First and will meet the requirements of the First Things First evaluation including, but not limited to, timely and regular reporting and cooperation with all First Things First evaluation activities. Timely and regular reporting of all performance and evaluation data includes the electronic submission of data (as identified in data reporting templates designed for each strategy) through the First Things First secure web portal known as PGMS. (The First Things First data reporting requirements for this strategy can be found at:

<http://www.azftf.gov/pages/WebMain.aspx?PagelId=9E8669C97C0C408B9F3567C855744398&StrategyId=62> and

<http://www.azftf.gov/pages/WebMain.aspx?PagelId=9E8669C97C0C408B9F3567C855744398&StrategyId=57>

Units of Service and Performance Measures are based on the primary strategy for Care Coordination/Medical Home and the secondary strategies of Developmental and Sensory Screening and Health Insurance Enrollment for the purposes of this RFGA. Specific target service units are not required for the secondary strategies but it is expected that the grantee will complete the data templates for the secondary strategies in addition to the primary strategy. For Developmental and Sensory Screening, grantee(s) will be required to report the number of developmental screenings conducted and the number of children receiving screenings and for Health Insurance Enrollment, grantee(s) will be required to report the number of families served. Sensory screening data will not be required for this RFGA. The units of Service are as follows:

Unit of Service: For Care Coordination/Medical Home:

- Number of children served

Performance Measures: For Care Coordination/Medical Home:

- Number of children served/ proposed service number
- Number of written care plans completed
- Number of families receiving referrals for health insurance enrollment
- Number of referrals for health and human service providers

For Developmental screening, the specific Unit of Service is:

- Number of developmental screenings conducted
- Number of children receiving screening

For Developmental Screening the Performance Measures include:

- Number of referrals for developmental screenings conducted

For Health Insurance Enrollment, the Unit of Service is:

- Number of families served

For Health Insurance Enrollment, the performance measures are:

- Number of families assisted with health insurance enrollment
- Number of families referred to other providers of low-cost or no-cost health care coverage

Instructions to Applicants

A. Inquiries

1. Duty to Examine. It is the responsibility of each applicant to examine the entire RFGA, seek clarification in writing (inquiries), and examine their application for accuracy before submission. Lack of care in preparing an application shall not be grounds for modifying or withdrawing the application after the due date and time, nor shall it give rise to any grant claim.
2. RFGA Contact Person. Any inquiry related to an RFGA, including any requests for or inquiries regarding standards referenced in the RFGA shall be directed solely to the RFGA contact person. The applicant shall not contact or direct inquiries concerning this RFGA to any other state employee unless the RFGA specifically identifies a person other than the RFGA contact person as a contact.
3. Submission of Inquiries. The Fiscal Specialist identified in this RFGA, who is the contact for all inquiries except at the Pre-Application Conference, requires that an inquiry be submitted in writing. Any inquiry related to the RFGA shall refer to the appropriate RFGA number, page and paragraph. When making an inquiry by mail, do not place the RFGA number on the outside of the envelope containing the inquiry, since it may then be identified as an application and not be opened until after the application due date and time. Electronic inquiries are acceptable and encouraged. First Things First shall consider the relevancy of the inquiry but is not required to respond in writing.
4. Timeliness. Any inquiry or exception to the RFGA shall be submitted as soon as possible and should be submitted at least seven days before the application due date and time for review and determination by First Things First. Failure to do so may result in the inquiry not being considered for an RFGA Amendment.
5. No Right to Rely on Verbal Responses. An applicant shall not rely on verbal responses to inquiries. A verbal reply to an inquiry does not constitute a modification of the RFGA.
6. RFGA Amendments. The RFGA shall only be modified by a formal written RFGA Amendment. Formal written amendments are posted on the First Things First website, www.azftf.gov. It is the sole responsibility of the applicant to check the website regularly.
7. Pre-Application Conference. A Pre-Application Conference has been scheduled for this RFGA and specific date, time and location are noted on Page 2. Applicants should raise any questions about the RFGA at that time. The Pre-Application Conference will clarify the contents of the RFGA in order to prevent any misunderstanding of First Things First's position. Any doubt as to the requirements of the RFGA or any apparent omission or discrepancy should be presented to First Things First at the Conference. An applicant may not rely on any verbal responses to questions at the Conference. Material issues raised at the conference that result in changes to the RFGA shall be answered solely through a formal written RFGA Amendment. Attendance at the Pre-Application Conference is strongly encouraged, but not mandatory.

8. Persons with Disabilities. Persons with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation, such as a sign language interpreter, by contacting the RFGA contact person. Requests shall be made as early as possible to allow time to arrange the accommodation.

Failure to submit verifiable evidence of intent to be bound, such as an original signature, shall result in rejection of the application.
4. Exceptions to Terms and Conditions. All exceptions included with the application shall be submitted in a clearly identified separate section of the application in which the applicant clearly identifies the specific paragraphs of the RFGA where the exceptions occur. Any exceptions not included in such a section shall be without force and effect in any resulting grant unless such exception is specifically accepted by the Fiscal Specialist in a written statement. The applicant's preprinted or standard terms will not be considered by First Things First as a part of any resulting grant. All exceptions that are contained in the application may negatively affect First Things First's proposal evaluation based on the evaluation criteria stated in the RFGA or result in rejection of the application.

15.3.1 Except for payment of sums due, neither party shall be liable to the other nor deemed in default under this grant if and to the extent that such party's performance of this grant is prevented by reason of force majeure. The term "force majeure" means an occurrence that is beyond the control of the party affected and occurs without its fault or negligence. Without limiting the foregoing, force majeure includes acts of God; acts of the public enemy; war; riots; strikes; mobilization; labor disputes; civil disorders; fire; flood; lockouts; injunctions- intervention-acts; or failures or refusals to act by government authority; and other similar occurrences beyond the control of the party declaring force majeure which such party is unable to prevent by exercising reasonable diligence.

If either party is delayed at any time in the progress of the work by force majeure, the delayed party shall notify the other party in writing of such delay, as soon as is practicable and no later than the following working day, of the commencement thereof and shall specify the causes of such delay in such notice. Such notice shall be delivered or mailed certified-return receipt and shall make a specific reference to this article, thereby invoking its provisions. The delayed party shall cause such delay to cease as soon as practicable and shall notify the other party in writing when it has done so. The time of completion shall be extended by an amendment for a period of time equal to the time that results or effects of such delay prevent the delayed party from performing in accordance with this grant.

15.3.4. Any delay or failure in performance by either party hereto shall not constitute default hereunder or give rise to any claim for damages or loss of anticipated profits if, and to the extent that such delay or failure is caused by force majeure.

15.4 Third Party Antitrust Violations. The grantee assigns to First Things First any claim for overcharges resulting from antitrust violations to the extent that those violations concern materials or services supplied by third parties to the grantee, toward fulfillment of this grant.

16.3. Fitness. The grantee warrants that any material supplied to First Things First shall fully conform to all requirements of the grant and all representations of the grantee, and shall be fit for all purposes and uses required by the grant.

16.4. Inspection/Testing. The warranties set forth in subparagraphs 17.1 through 17.3 of this paragraph are not affected by inspection or testing of or payment for the materials by First Things First.

16.5 Compliance with Applicable Laws. The services supplied under this grant shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws, and the grantee shall maintain all applicable licenses and permit requirements.

16.5.1. Sectarian Requests. Funds may not be expended for any sectarian purpose or activity, including sectarian worship or instructions.

16.5.2. Restrictions on Lobbying. The grantee shall not use these funds to pay for, influence, or seek to influence any officer or employee of First Things First, state government or the federal government if that action may have an impact, of any nature, on this grant.

16.5.4. Fingerprinting. Pursuant to A.R.S. §41-1758, the grantee will obtain fingerprint cards and/or background checks as applicable. This grant may be cancelled or terminated if the fingerprint check or the certified form of any person who is employed by a provider, whether paid or not, and who is required or allowed to provide services directly to children, discloses that a person has committed any act of sexual abuse of a child, including sexual exploitation or commercial sexual exploitation, or any act of child abuse or that the person has been convicted of or awaiting trial on any criminal offenses in this state or similar offenses in another state or jurisdiction.

17. State's Contractual Remedies.

17.1 Right to Assurance. If First Things First in good faith has reason to believe that the grantee does not intend to, or is unable to perform or continue performing under this grant, the First Things First Fiscal Specialist may demand in writing that the grantee give a written assurance of intent to perform. Failure by the grantee to provide written assurance within the number of days specified in the demand may be, at First Things First's discretion, the basis for terminating the grant under the Terms and Conditions or other rights and remedies available by law or provided by the grant.

17.2 Stop Work Order.

First Things First may, at any time, by written order to the grantee, require the grantee to stop all or any part, of the work called for by this grant for period(s) of days indicated by First Things First after the order is delivered to the grantee. The order shall be specifically identified as a stop work order issued under this clause. Upon receipt of the order, the grantee shall immediately comply with its terms and take all reasonable steps to minimize the incurrence of costs allocable to the work covered by the order during the period of work stoppage.

If a stop work order issued under this clause is canceled or the period of the order or any extension expires, the grantee shall resume work. First Things First shall make an equitable adjustment in the delivery schedule or grant price, or both, and the grant shall be amended in writing accordingly.

17.3. Nonconforming Tender. Materials or services supplied under this grant shall fully comply with the grant. The delivery of materials or services or a portion of the materials or services that do not fully comply constitutes a breach of this grant. On delivery of nonconforming materials or services, First Things First may terminate the grant for default under applicable termination clauses in the grant, exercise any of its rights and remedies under the Uniform Commercial Code, or pursue any other right or remedy available to it.

17.4. Right of Offset. First Things First shall be entitled to offset against any sums due the grantee, any expenses or costs incurred by First Things First, or damages assessed by First Things First concerning the grantee's non-conforming performance or failure to perform the grant, including expenses, costs and damages described in the Terms and Conditions.

17.5 Non-Exclusive Remedies. The rights and the remedies of First Things First under this grant are not exclusive.

18. Grant Termination.

18.1 Cancellation for Conflict of Interest. Pursuant to A.R.S. §38-511, First Things First may cancel this grant within three (3) years after grant execution without penalty or further obligation if any person significantly involved in initiating, negotiating, securing, drafting or creating the grant on behalf of First Things First is or becomes at any time while the grant or an extension of the grant is in effect an employee of or a consultant to any other party to this grant with respect to the subject matter of the grant. The cancellation shall be effective when the grantee receives written notice of the cancellation unless the notice specifies a later time. If the grantee is a political subdivision of the State of Arizona, it may also cancel this grant as provided in A.R.S. §38-511.

18.2 Cancellation for Failure to Perform. Failure by the grantee to adhere to any provision of this grant or its attachments in the time and manner provided by this grant or its attachments shall constitute a material default and breach of this grant and First Things First may cancel, at its option, this grant upon prior written notice. First Things First may issue a written ten (10) day notice of default to the grantee for acting or failing to act including but not limited to any of the following:

18.2.1. The grantee provides personnel that do not meet the requirements of this grant or are of an unacceptable quality.

18.2.2. The grantee fails to perform adequately the services required in this grant.

18.2.3. The grantee fails to furnish the required product or services within the time stipulated in this grant.

18.2.4 The grantee fails to make progress in the performance of the requirements of the grant and/or gives a positive indication that the grantee will not or cannot perform to the requirements of this grant.

If the grantee does not correct any problem(s) within ten (10) days after receiving the notice of default, First Things First may cancel the grant. If First Things First cancels the grant pursuant to this clause, First Things First reserves all rights or claims to damage for breach of the grant and the grantee agrees to a general release in favor of First Things First for any claim for reimbursement.

18.3 Gratuities. First Things First may, by written notice, terminate this grant, in whole or in part, if First Things First determines that employment or a gratuity was offered or made by the grantee or a representative of the grantee to any officer or employee of the State for the purpose of influencing the outcome of the procurement or securing the grant, an amendment to the grant, or favorable treatment concerning the grant, including the making of any determination or decision about grant performance. First Things First, in addition to any other rights or remedies, shall be entitled to recover exemplary damages in the amount of three times the value of the gratuity offered by the grantee.

- 18.4 Suspension or Debarment. First Things First may, by written notice to the grantee, immediately terminate this grant if First Things First determines that the grantee has been debarred, suspended or otherwise lawfully prohibited from participating in any public procurement activity, including but not limited to, being disapproved as a subgrantee of any public procurement unit or other governmental body. Submittal of a grant application or execution of a grant shall attest that the grantee is not currently suspended or debarred. If the grantee becomes suspended or debarred, the grantee shall immediately notify First Things First.
- 18.5 Termination for Convenience. First Things First reserves the right to terminate the grant, in whole or in part at any time, when in the best interests of First Things First without penalty or recourse. Upon receipt of the written notice, the grantee shall stop all work, as directed in the notice, notify all subgrantees of the effective date of the termination and minimize all further costs to First Things First. In the event of termination under this paragraph, all documents, data and reports prepared by the grantee under the grant shall become the property of and be delivered to First Things First upon demand. The grantee shall be entitled to receive just, equitable compensation for work in progress, work completed, and materials accepted before the effective date of the termination. The cost principles and procedures provided in A.A.C. R2-7-701 shall apply.
- 18.6 Termination for Default.
- 18.6.1. In addition to the rights reserved in the grant, First Things First may terminate the grant in whole or in part due to the failure of the grantee to comply with any term or condition of the grant; to acquire and maintain all required insurance policies, bonds, licenses and permits; to make satisfactory progress in performing the grant; or failure to comply with the Data Security Guidelines. First Things First shall provide written notice of the termination to the grantee.
- 18.6.2. Upon termination under this paragraph, all materials, documents, data and reports prepared by the grantee under the grant shall become the property of and be delivered to First Things First on demand.
- 18.6.3. Upon termination of this grant, First Things First may procure, on terms and in the manner that it deems appropriate, materials or services to replace those under this grant. The grantee shall be liable to First Things First for any excess costs incurred by First Things First in procuring services in substitution for those due from the grantee.
- 18.7. Continuation of Performance through Termination. The grantee shall continue to perform, in accordance with the requirements of the grant, up to the date of termination, as directed in the termination notice.
19. Grant Claims. All grant claims or controversies under this grant shall be resolved according to A.R.S. Title 41, Chapter 23, Article 9, and rules adopted thereunder.

Attachment E and F Instructions

How to Complete the Line Item Budget and Budget Narrative

Complete a 12-month budget for the period July 1, 2013 through June 30, 2014 using the template provided in Attachment E. Please make sure you include a budget narrative as Attachment F.

Please keep in mind items described in a line item budget and in more detail in the budget narrative should describe how the costs were determined and the public purpose for the cost related successfully implementing the project. Please assure that all requested funds follow these guidelines:

- Be necessary and reasonable for proper and efficient performance and administration of First Things First funds.
- Be authorized or not prohibited under State or local laws or regulations.
- Be consistent with policies, regulations, and procedures that apply uniformly to all costs charged and expended by the agency – consistent treatment of costs.
 - For example – a cost may not be assigned to another grant award as an indirect cost if any other cost incurred for the same purposes in like circumstances has been allocated to the First Things First award as a direct cost.
 - For example – a cost for a certain type of expense is charged one rate to another source of funding and a different rate to First Things First - this would not be consistent treatment of costs.
- Be determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.
- Be adequately documented.
- All travel related costs for these trainings and meetings should be included in the Applicant's budget and calculated using the State of Arizona travel rate limitations for mileage, per diem and lodging as described on the budget narrative worksheet. For more information about the state requirements, visit <http://www.gao.az.gov/travel/>.
- Budget modification requests must be submitted via the FTF Partners in Grants Management System (PGMS) Communication Log and approval received prior to the implementation of any of the modifications.

Please note the line items included in the budget template represent the types of costs possible for a line item budget these line items may or may not be applicable or appropriate for your application. Your budget line items requested must fit within one of the categories listed. However, it is expected that you would not need to utilize all of the sample line items.

Personnel Services: Include information such as position title(s), name of employee (if known), salary, time to be spent on this program (hours or %), number of months assigned to this program, etc. Explain how the salary rate for each position was determined. If salaries are expected to increase during the project year, indicate the percentage increases for each position and justify the percent of the salary increase. Also, be sure to include the scheduled salary increases on the Budget Form.

Employee Related Expenses: Include a benefit percentage and what expenses make up employee benefit costs. Indicate any special rates for part-time employees, if applicable. Explain how the benefits for each position were determined. If using a fringe benefit rate, explain how this percentage is justified or approved by your agency.

Professional and Outside Services: If professional consultants/services costs are proposed in the budget, define how the costs for these services were determined and the justification for the services related to the project. Explain how all contracts will be procured.

Travel: Separate travel that is in state and out-of-state. Include a detailed breakdown of hotel, transportation, meal costs, etc. Indicate the location(s) of travel, the justification for travel, how many employees will attend and how the estimates have been determined. Explain the relationship of each cost item to the project (e.g., if training or training expenses are requested, explain the topic of the training and its relationship to the project). Applicants must use the State of Arizona Travel Policy on rates limitations for mileage, lodging, and meals (<http://www.gao.az.gov/travel/> for both in-state and out-of-state travel.

Aid to Organizations or Individuals: In the event that this application represents collaboration and the contract will be utilizing other sub grantees or subcontractors to perform various components of the program, include a list of sub grantees, programmatic work each sub grantee will perform, and how costs for each sub grantee are determined.

Other Operating Expenses: Explain each item to be purchased, how the costs were determined and justify the need for the items. All purchases should be made through competitive bid or using established purchasing procedures. All items should be categorized in the following categories: Telephones / Communications Services, Internet Access, General Office Supplies, Food, Rent/Occupancy, Evaluation (non-contracted and non-personnel expenses), Utilities, Furniture, Postage, Software (including IT supplies), Dues/Subscriptions, Advertising, Printing/Copying, Equipment Maintenance, Professional Development/Staff Training, Conference Workshops/ Training Fees for Staff, Insurance, Program Materials, Program Supplies, Scholarships, and Program Incentives

Non-Capital Equipment: For items with a unit cost less than $5,000 and an initial estimated useful life beyond a single year, explain each item to be purchased, how the costs were determined and justify the need for the items. All purchases should be made through competitive bid or using established purchasing procedures. For example, items such as computers, printers, projectors, etc. each with a unit cost less than $5,000.

Administrative/Indirect Costs: Administrative costs are general or centralized expenses of overall administration of an organization that receives grant funds and does not include particular program costs. For organizations that have an established federally approved indirect cost rate for Federal awards, indirect costs mean those costs that are included in the organization's indirect cost rate. Such costs are generally identified with the organization's overall operation and are further described in 2 CFR 220, 2 CFR 225, and 2 CFR 230.

Applicants must list either Option A or Option B and provide proper justification for expenses included:

- ☐ Option A - Administrative Costs: with proper justification, sub grantees may include an allocation for administrative costs for up to 10% of the total direct costs requested of the grant request. Administrative costs may include allocable direct charges for: costs of financial, accounting, auditing, contracting or general legal services; costs of internal evaluation, including overall organization's management improvement costs; and costs of general liability insurance that protects the organization(s) responsible for operating a project, other than insurance costs solely attributable to the project. Administrative costs may also include that portion of salaries and benefits of the project's director and other administrative staff not attributable to the time spent in support of a specific project.

OR

- ☐ Option B - Federally Approved Indirect Costs: *If your organization has a federally approved indirect cost rate agreement in place, grantees may include an allocation for indirect costs for up to 10% of the direct costs. Applicants must provide a copy of their federally approved indirect cost rate agreement.

Indirect costs are costs of an organization that are not readily assignable to a particular project, but are necessary to the operation of the organization and the performance of the project. The cost of operating and maintaining facilities, depreciation, and administrative salaries are examples of the types of costs that are usually treated as indirect.

Standards of Practice Care Coordination/Medical Home

I. Description of Health Issue

Data shows that many primary care physicians struggle to fulfill the care-coordination needs of children, youth, and families. The medical home model represents a standard of primary care where children and their families receive the care they need from a family physician, pediatrician or healthcare professional that they trust. A medical home addresses well-child care, acute care, and chronic care for all children from birth through their transition to adulthood. A medical home is a building block needed to ensure accessible, patient-centered, and coordinated primary care for children. The medical home model is an approach to providing primary care that is focused on the relationship between the patient and the personal clinician. Championed by the American Academy of Pediatrics, the medical home is broadly defined as primary care that is "accessible, continuous, comprehensive, family-centered, coordinated, compassionate, and culturally effective." A medical home does not refer to an actual physical place but to an approach to providing health care that assures that patients have access to care, that their care is well coordinated, and that they are engaged in their care, patient centered care.

An important component of a medical home is care coordination to provide linkages for children and their families with appropriate medical services and community resources in a coordinated effort to achieve optimal health. According to the Medical Home Practice-Based Care Coordination Workbook (McAllistar, Presler, Cooley); "It has been suggested that you cannot be a strong medical home without the capacity to link families with a designated care coordinator.

Effective care coordination begins with recognizing the relationship between the family, the health care provider and the care coordinator. It enhances access to needed services and resources, promotes optimal health and functioning of children, and supports improved quality of life.

Care is coordinated and/or integrated across all elements of the complex health care and social services systems (e.g., subspecialty care, hospitals, home health agencies, home visitation services) and the patient's community (e.g., family, schools, childcare, public and private community-based services). Care coordinators will enhance the abilities of the medical practice to assure that children receive appropriate medical care and developmental screening in a culturally and linguistically appropriate manner.

The National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) has defined these goals as: improving the patient experience, recognizing clinicians for their efforts and providing confidence for purchasers that their dollars are spent on quality care. Read more at:

http://www.ncqa.org/Portals/0/Programs/Recognition/2011PCMHbrochure_web.pdf

II. Implementation Standards

A. Programs implementing care coordination will:

1. Assist a medical practice or group practice to identify:
 - a. Children with special healthcare needs and establish methods for developmental screening, referral and coordination of medical and social services for children as needed;
 - b. Children with complex social risks that require a care coordinator to assist a family in meeting their needs (includes living in a shelter for family violence or homelessness).
2. Assure that the program intake process assesses the strengths and needs of the child and family by:
 - a. Using standardized developmental screening tools;
 - b. Assessing children for social, emotional and behavioral risks and ensure they are enrolled into the program;
 - c. Fully engaging with families in the assessment and planning process.
3. Complete an intake assessment and develop a written care plan with the family. This assessment (including strengths and weaknesses) should consider medical status, developmental stage of the child and a variety of family protective factors such as parental resilience, social connections, knowledge of parenting and child development, concrete support in times of need and children's healthy social emotional development. The care planning process must include the following:
 - a. Work with families and health providers to assure the details required and goals of the written plan of care. The intensity of care coordination should vary based upon identified needs/desires of the family;
 - b. Periodically review the care plan with the family and identify completion of goals and additional needs that might be addressed;
 - c. Work with the medical practice or group practice referral staff to identify medical and social service referral needs;
 - d. Ensure completion of referral visits and outcomes of those visits;
 - e. Assist the family in following up with referrals as needed.
4. Facilitate family access to health insurance as needed:
 - a. Provide assistance in e-Health insurance application process
 - b. Provide information regarding community resources
 - c. Promote family independence by working to develop self-care skills
 - d. Lead, facilitate or participate in early intervention team meetings as appropriate
 - e. Advocate for the family
5. Participate in quality/performance measurement processes related to the care coordination/medical home model.

B. Care coordination programs will:

1. Assure that all program staff has the appropriate experience and education to provide care coordination services.
2. Provide ongoing training to program staff to assure quality implementation.
3. Assure that all patient and family information is handled in a confidential manner.
4. Assure that appropriate consent is obtained for service delivery.
5. Collaborate with local agencies/community partners.

It is recommended that well child visits for children age 0-5 years follow the standards for well child visits based upon Early Periodic Screening Diagnostic and Treatment (EPSDT) guidelines. EPSDT funds well-child visits that provide comprehensive health care through primary prevention, early intervention, diagnosis and medically necessary treatment of physical and behavioral health problems for enrolled AHCCCS members less than 21 years of age. Standardized forms and guidelines for all EPSDT providers can be found at:

<http://www.azahcccs.gov/shared/Downloads/MedicalPolicyManual/AppendixB.pdf>

Care Coordinators will NOT be responsible for performing medical procedures or treatments, giving medical advice, writing reports generally prepared by physicians or nurses and performing routine bookkeeping, clerical or billing functions.

III. Training and Qualifications Standards

Qualifications for a Care Coordinator include:

- Minimum of a Bachelor's Degree in health care, social work, nursing or related field and have experience working with children birth through five and their families.
- Have excellent communication and organizational skills that promote efficiency in care coordination.
- Have a comprehensive understanding of community, social and governmental resources available to support families.
- Have training in using valid developmental and sensory screening assessment tools.

IV. Cultural Competencies

Programs will also implement the following best practices and standards related to Cultural Competencies:

- To address cultural competency objectives, early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers shall ensure that children and families receive from all staff members and program participants' effective, understandable, and respectful care that is provided in a culturally competent manner. Early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers should ensure that staff and participants at all levels and across all disciplines receive ongoing education and training in culturally and linguistically appropriate service delivery. Early childhood practitioners/early childhood service providers should develop participatory, collaborative partnerships with communities and utilize a variety of formal and informal mechanisms to facilitate community and family-centered involvement to ensure that services are delivered in a manner that is consistent with the National Standards on Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services and/or the National Recommendations on Cultural and Linguistic Competence for the National Association for the Education of Young Children.”

<http://www.naeyc.org/positionstatements/linguistic>

- Service providers should understand individual Tribes/Nations are distinct and separate communities from other Tribes/Nations and their governmental systems and structures are not reflective of each other. Services to Tribal communities and on reservations must be provided in a manner compatible with the Tribe’s/Nation’s cultural beliefs and practices, to include the preferred language of the community. Services must also be provided in accordance with the Tribe’s/Nation’s laws, policies and procedures. The effectiveness of services is directly related to the provider’s consideration of the beliefs, customs and laws of the Tribe/Nation.
- Service providers can obtain information about providing services on tribal lands from a variety of sources. These include the FTF Regional Director, Regional Council members, tribal websites and publications, as well as official representatives of the Tribe/Nation such as the governing body, standing committees and authorized departments.
- It is highly recommended that service providers seek guidance from one or more of these sources before initiating services on reservations. Failure to do so could result in contraventions of cultural beliefs, Tribal laws or sovereignty.
- The ideal applicant will demonstrate their ability to operate within these parameters through prior experience working with Tribes/Nations, demonstrating that staff are culturally competent, partnerships with agencies serving Native American families, knowledge of cultural beliefs, customs and laws of the Tribe/Nation or a combination of these elements.
- Related to data collection, evaluation or research activities:
 - In the United States, Native American Tribes are considered autonomous nations with all of the rights and responsibilities of a nation. Understanding this, Native American Tribes are charged with protecting the health and safety of their people. To this end, Tribes have full ownership over any data collected within their reservation boundaries. This means that Tribes can allow or not allow any program to collect data from or related to any early childhood development and health program or activities on the reservation.
 - Any grantee implementing programs in tribal communities must have official tribal permission to collect and utilize sensitive data from or related to any early childhood development and health program or activities. Such data can include but not be limited to:
 - Morbidity and mortality among children members of their communities
 - Information regarding child safety and welfare
 - Information regarding children in foster care
 - Infectious and chronic disease information among members of their communities
 - BMI and healthy weight information beginning at age 2 years and each year

V. Evidence based programs

First Things First is committed to funding programs that use research based practice and data-driven decision making, or Evidence Based Programs (EBP). Our emphasis on evidence-based programs is grounded in the idea that the maximum benefit for children and families is delivered by programs that base their practice in the most current, relevant, and reliable evidence about the effectiveness of the program.

The following are considered when deciding on funding programs:

- Evidence based programs (EBP) are programs that have been validated by documented and scientific research and the evidence has gone through a peer review process. Evidence is established through scientific research that has had a comparison between an intervention group and a control group where the intervention group has had a significant impact. Peer review means that someone external to the program or research team has reviewed the methodology and the findings to determine if a standard was met.
- A best or promising practice is defined as an intervention that is based on a theory of change and has had some evaluation of the outcomes. This can be based on one program that has been tested in multiple settings.
 - A promising practice cannot be based on the evaluation of a single program even if it has been done for many years in the community and everyone likes it.
- There are many instances where there is not an evidence based program or a promising practice or a particular strategy. The research or evaluation has not been done specifically on the population being served or a new innovative program design is being used. Adaptations of an EBP or implementation of an extension of an EBP can be proposed with justification.

Evidence based or best practice models of care coordination

There are a number of successful national models, which have demonstrated impressive health outcomes for children ages birth through five by offering high-risk families additional supports to access care. Applicants should use one of the following models to provide care coordination services:

1. Healthy Steps: The concept of the integrated Healthy Steps Program is to position early childhood development specialists in primary care clinics. The team approach provides the resources medical providers need to coordinate quality care, and provide parents want and need. The Healthy Steps specialist's office will be located next to clinic rooms for "warm hand offs", as well as provider and patient consultation. The Healthy Steps specialist will support the primary medical provider by bringing more specialized knowledge to bear on problems that the medical provider thinks require additional support. The Healthy Steps specialist is the member of the link between a family and their child's provider.

2. Pediatric Alliance for Coordinated Care (PACC) - this is the one evidence based program with some support that replication is possible. It includes having clinics that serve children in a medical home model. There are specific standards to follow that include service coordination by a trained staff member of the team within the clinic with families who require coordination of multiple providers, tests and those who have medically at-risk children.
3. Community based programs that assist families with children who have complex medical and health care needs to access needed care are included in this strategy to accommodate regional difference.

Elements common to each program should include the following:

- Routine and ongoing developmental screening
- Parental guidance and education
- Well child visits with immunizations
- Support continuity of care for parents and their children
- Interaction with more than one agencies
- Development of a care plan with the family- parental
- Ongoing evaluation of efforts at reaching the targeted population.

Standards of Practice Developmental and Sensory Screening Services

I. Description of Strategy Health Issue

As part of a comprehensive system of services to families, there is a need for additional services to screen and identify children who may have developmental delays or sensory (hearing, vision) problems. Many children who have spent time in a neonatal intensive care unit (NICU), and who may have had health problems when they were born, have a greater risk for developmental delays and require additional screening.

Many children with behavioral or developmental disabilities and sensory deficits miss important opportunities for early detection and intervention due to gaps in screening and availability of services. Delays in language development, other developmental areas or sensory deficits impact a child's ability to be ready for school. Less than 50% of these children are identified as having a problem before they start school and the opportunities for early intervention have been missed. The U.S. Department of Education regulates the early intervention program under Part C of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). This program provides screening, evaluation and intervention services for infants and toddlers with developmental delays and disabilities and their families. Part C is administered by states that serves infants and toddlers through age 2 with developmental delays or who have diagnosed physical or mental conditions with high probabilities of resulting in developmental delays. However, many children are not Part C eligible initially and have delays that may not be identified.

Developmental screening administrative services funded by FTF are multi-tiered. They include community awareness programs to screen children for developmental delays, identification of children in child care centers with possible delays, and home visitation program staff who have identified children with possible delays. Screening for developmental delays or sensory deficits is not diagnostic and should not be represented as definitive. Screening leads to a referral for a diagnostic assessment by a child's health care providers to determine if there is an actual delay and to plan for treatment through state agencies (AzEIP, school districts, Children's Rehabilitative Services) or private organizations that provide these specific services.

Screening is comprehensive in that it includes a review of children's development in the cognitive, communication, physical development, sensory deficits, social-emotional and adaptive domains.

The results of the screening process can lead to further screening and diagnostic testing and early interventions.

There are a number of avenues that can facilitate basic screening and identification of children with potential developmental delays or sensory deficits:

- Medical clinical staff if associated with care coordination programs
- Quality First Child Care Health Consultants (CCHC)
- By qualified and trained child care staff.
- Home visitation programs staffed by nurses or trained staff – referrals to appropriate resources if screening cannot occur during home visit.
- Family Resource Centers if staff are trained in doing screening and appropriate referrals are made for children who have delays.
- Community based screening including mobile screening vans and sensory screening services.

Although developmental and sensory screening is merged together, awardees can be selected separately. The intent is to have screening be a more comprehensive effort.

II. Implementation Standards

All developmental or sensory screening administration includes the following standards:

Screening services should include the following:

- Discussion of concerns with family and obtain parental consent for screening.
- Standard training for anyone who is conducting a screening on how to use screening valid and reliable screening tools such as ASQ or PEDS, or necessary equipment.
- Administration of age appropriate developmental screening instrument or age appropriate sensory testing equipment.
- Discussion of results of screening with parents.
- Plan for sequential screening if the child's response indicates follow up rather than a referral (could have been an off day, sick child with marginal results).
- Make appropriate referrals to AzEIP, Child Find (Part B), local schools, health care providers, behavioral health professionals, or other community resources for a diagnostic evaluation if results warrant.
- Follow up with families about the result of the referral process and findings. Determine if they obtained an additional screening and what the next steps are for the child.

Screening Locations:

- While screening can occur in wide variety of settings, screenings that are conducted in environments where families maintain ongoing connections (as part of a medical home, a child's home or child care centers) are preferred. The administration of screening at such locations will facilitate the follow up process, and ensure that routine screenings occur at recommended intervals.

- Screenings should occur in a quiet, well-lighted, non-distracting environment.
- Screenings optimally should occur in settings that are closely aligned to a child's natural environment (for example: where children typically are such as a home or child care center or other location with which the child has familiarity and is comfortable).

Developmental Screening Administration Standards:

Screening Tools

- Age appropriate and standardized screening tools and equipment should be used. Also, the most reliable and appropriate options for screening should be used to:
 - Ensure that the cognitive and motor skills being assessed appropriately match the age of the child.
 - Ensure that screening tools are comprehensive and assess children in all developmental domains: cognition, communication, physical, social-emotional, and adaptive.
- Developmental assessment instruments must have validity and a .80 reliability level.

Suggested developmental assessment tools for screening children birth-age three

- a. PEDS (Parents Evaluation of Developmental Status): resources found in Appendix
- b. Ages and Stages Questionnaires: link is in reference section, online screening can be considered
- c. Ages and Stages Questionnaire: Social Emotional Scale (this tool needs to be supplemented by another tool to ensure all areas of development are covered)

Conducting Screening

- Parent or guardian consent to screening is required before screening can occur.
- The parent is actively involved in the screening process.
- Screening must occur in the child and family's primary language.
- Screenings should include additional confirmatory information (parent input, observations, etc.).
- A parent or other designated caretaker is present for all screening procedures conducted through home visitation or mobile screening activities.
- Parents receive written feedback from the screening as well as a written referral for additional screening and diagnostic services if necessary.

Sensory Screening Administration Standards

Screening Tools

- Screening instruments should be sensitive enough to identify problems, and specific enough to prevent unacceptable over-referrals.
- Screening tools should be designed to capture and hold a child's interest at an age

- appropriate level while minimizing distraction from other stimuli.
- Screening tools used must be age appropriate, meeting the cognitive and motor skills required for participation.
- Screening tools should be designed to actively engage a young child, giving the tester the opportunity to observe and interact with the child during the screening process.
- Screening tools must be free from bias and appropriate to the population on which they are used.

Conducting Screening

Hearing

- Hearing screening should be performed using age appropriate, standardized screening tools, equipment and/or assessments.
- Hearing screenings require a quiet environment with ambient noise levels on average of less than 50 dBSPL. Although the space requirement is minimal, it is important that the hearing screenings be conducted in a room separate from the rest of the screening.
- Audiometers, if used, should be equipped with a full headset (two earphones), while audiometers equipped with only one earphone utilizing a handled method should be avoided.
- Hearing screeners should have additional, child friendly manipulatives available to help elicit results beyond the use of hardware and charts.
- All devices to test hearing shall have periodic testing for accuracy and proper functioning and include any required certificates stating that these standards have been met.

Vision

- Vision screening would be performed using age appropriate, standardized screening tools and/or assessments.
- Vision screenings should be conducted in areas that have minimal distraction, are well lighted, and have space appropriate for the test being used.
- Vision screeners should have additional, child friendly manipulatives available to help elicit results beyond the use of hardware and charts.

III. Training and Qualifications Standards

Conducting developmental screening requires specific education and skills.

- Educational level: minimum of a bachelor's degree or certification in child development, nursing, early childhood education, child and family studies, or closely related field is required.
- All individuals conducting developmental screening will obtain and maintain certification and/ or required training on all of the chosen methods and tools used in screening activities and attend re-certification or additional training courses as required by the tool, the instrument developers, and as it is determined necessary through supervision.

- Personnel, who do not meet the required education level or are newly trained in developmental screening activities, may administer developmental screening under the direct supervision of an individual who does meet the training and qualifications standards until it can be documented that the person conducting screening can do so in a reliable manner. This level of supervision is above and beyond the regular supervision activities required in the First Things First Home Visitation or other Standards of Practice. The supervisor will participate with the home visitor or program specialist in conducting screenings and review all completed screening instruments until the home visitor or program specialist is able to consistently conduct screening in a reliable manner. This can be documented in staff's personnel file and family files.
- Areas of knowledge and competencies must be demonstrated in:
 - a. Typical and atypical child development
 - b. Routines based interviewing practices (see <http://www.siskin.org/www/docs/112.190/>)
 - c. Objective child observation
 - d. Use of appropriate screening tools for young children
- Individuals conducting screening will participate in continuing education to remain current and update skills and knowledge regarding developmental screening procedures and child development to meet the requirements of this scope of work.

Conducting sensory screening requires specific education, equipment and skills.

- Educational level: minimum of a bachelor's degree or certification in hearing or vision screening as well as certification in the use of the equipment used for screening.
- All individuals conducting sensory screening will obtain and maintain certification and/ or required training on all of the chosen equipment and tools used in screening activities and attend re-certification or additional training courses as required and as it is determined necessary through supervision.
- Personnel, who do not meet the required education level or are newly trained in sensory screening activities, may administer screening under the direct supervision of an individual who does meet the training and qualifications standards until it can be documented that the person conducting screening can do so in a reliable manner.
 - a. This level of supervision is above and beyond the regular supervision activities required in the First Things First Home Visitation or other Standards of Practice. The supervisor will participate with the home visitor or program specialist in conducting screenings and review all completed abnormal or marginal screening results given to families.

IV. Cultural Competencies

Programs will also implement the following best practices and standards related to Cultural Competencies:

- To address cultural competency objectives, early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers shall ensure that children and families receive from all staff members and program participants' effective, understandable, and respectful care that is provided in a culturally competent manner. Early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers should ensure that staff and participants at all levels and across all disciplines receive ongoing education and training in culturally and linguistically appropriate service delivery. Early childhood practitioners/early childhood service providers should develop participatory, collaborative partnerships with communities and utilize a variety of formal and informal mechanisms to facilitate community and family-centered involvement to ensure that services are delivered in a manner that is consistent with the National Standards on Culturally and Linguistically Appropriate Services and/or the National Recommendations on Cultural and Linguistic Competence for the National Association for the Education of Young Children.”

<http://www.naeyc.org/positionstatements/linguistic>

- Service providers should understand individual Tribes/Nations are distinct and separate communities from other Tribes/Nations and their governmental systems and structures are not reflective of each other. Services to Tribal communities and on reservations must be provided in a manner compatible with the Tribe’s/Nation’s cultural beliefs and practices, to include the preferred language of the community. Services must also be provided in accordance with the Tribe’s/Nation’s laws, policies and procedures. The effectiveness of services is directly related to the provider’s consideration of the beliefs, customs and laws of the Tribe/Nation.
- Service providers can obtain information about providing services on tribal lands from a variety of sources. These include the FTF Regional Director, Regional Council members, tribal websites and publications, as well as official representatives of the Tribe/Nation such as the governing body, standing committees and authorized departments.
- It is highly recommended that service providers seek guidance from one or more of these sources before initiating services on reservations. Failure to do so could result in contraventions of cultural beliefs, Tribal laws or sovereignty.
- The ideal applicant will demonstrate their ability to operate within these parameters through prior experience working with Tribes/Nations, demonstrating that staff are culturally competent, partnerships with agencies serving Native American families, knowledge of cultural beliefs, customs and laws of the Tribe/Nation or a combination of these elements.
- Related to data collection, evaluation or research activities:
 - In the United States, Native American Tribes are considered autonomous nations with all of the rights and responsibilities of a nation. Understanding this, Native American Tribes are charged with protecting the health and safety of their people. To this end, Tribes have full ownership over any data collected within their reservation boundaries. This means that Tribes can allow or not allow any program to collect data from or related to any early childhood development and health program or activities on the reservation.
 - Any grantee implementing programs in tribal communities must have official tribal permission to collect and utilize sensitive data from or related to any early childhood development and health program or activities. Such data can include but not be limited to:

- Morbidity and mortality among children members of their communities
- Information regarding child safety and welfare
- Information regarding children in foster care
- Infectious and chronic disease information among members of their communities
- BMI and healthy weight information beginning at age 2 years and each year after that

DEVELOPMENTAL SCREENING USING THE PEDS TOOL

(Parents' Assessment of Developmental Status)

As of January 1, 2006, AHCCCS began implementing the use of the PEDS tool for developmental screening by all participating primary care providers who had members that had been admitted to the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) following birth.

Frequently asked questions regarding PEDS TOOL

1. What is the PEDS Tool?

- a. PEDS Tool is Parents' Evaluation of Developmental Status. PEDS is a standardized tool to detect and address developmental and behavioral problems.

2. Why PEDS?

a. PEDS was adopted by AHCCCS after being chosen as the preferred tool for developmental screening by the Governor's School Readiness Board Health Implementation Team in conjunction with the Arizona Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics (AzAAP). The tool is easy to administer and score and provides an on-going record of screenings.

3. Who should be screened using the PEDS Tool?

a. Every child needs to have a developmental screening as part of the EPSDT visit. All children born after 1/1/06 and reported as having been in the Nursery Intensive Care Unit (NICU) after birth should be screened using the PEDS Tool during their EPSDT visit.

4. What does this mean to me as a provider?

a. Providers must order hard copies of the PEDS tools for use in the office. These can be obtained on line at www.pedstest.com or www.forepath.com. Please be aware that making photocopies of the PEDS tools is a violation of copyright law. The cost of ordering the PEDS forms considered when developing the reimbursement rates.

5. Where can I obtain the training?

a. Training can easily be accessed through the AzAAP webpage (www.azaap.org). Providers can complete the training on line. After the completion, each provider must notify Provider Services so their file can be updated.

Standards of Practice Health Insurance Outreach and Enrollment Assistance

I. Description of Health Strategy Issue

Many children living in low income families qualify for publicly funded health insurance. Across the nation, as many as half the children who are uninsured qualify for publicly funded health insurance coverage (such as KidsCare or the Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System also known as AHCCCS). In Arizona, it is estimated that 16 percent of children lack health care coverage. For children under age five this represents 80,000 children. Health insurance outreach and application assistance is a proven practice for improving and increasing health coverage in public programs. Community application assistance occurs nationally and in Arizona in a wide variety of settings, such as health clinics, child care settings, social service agencies, recreation centers, and homeless shelters. Reports based on national as well as Arizona experience indicate that such assistance can make a difference in obtaining coverage for children.

In Arizona, AHCCCS implemented an electronic application for services to make applications more accessible to families. The universal application, known as Health-e-Arizona, allows families to apply for and renew health coverage, as well as other family support programs such as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) cash assistance, and nutrition assistance, directly over the internet. (<https://www.healtharizona.org/app/Default.aspx>)

While this application promises to make enrollment in public coverage programs for young children easier, barriers still exist. Many families are not aware of available publicly funded health insurance programs for which they may be eligible. Community-based organizations and families may be unfamiliar with the new application, and may need assistance in completing it. Other families do not have access to a computer or an internet connection. In addition, families who are applying for coverage for the first time are required to submit original documentation to an Arizona Department of Economic Security (DES) office or a community-based agency that is “certified” by AHCCCS to accept such documentation. Families may find going to a DES office intimidating or difficult due to hours of operation (8-5), long wait times or travel distance. Currently, a limited number of community organizations use the Health-e-Arizona application to enroll children in health coverage, including some community health centers and hospitals.

There are several approaches to reduce the number of children who lack health insurance coverage such as increasing awareness of available publicly funded health insurance programs; increasing awareness of and access to the Health-e-Arizona online application; and reducing barriers in the public health insurance application process.

II. Implementation Standards

Programs implementing community health education activities will:

- Seek out families that are eligible but not enrolled in public health insurance- AHCCCS and Kids Care- and provide assistance for these families to enroll.
- Seek out families that are currently enrolled in public health insurance and provide assistance for those families to re-enroll in a timely way as appropriate.
- Introduce and provide technical assistance to families so that they have the knowledge and skills to apply for services utilizing the Health-E-Arizona application.
- Have basic knowledge about the Health Insurance Exchanges that are being implemented in January 2014
- Provide information that parents can use about the importance of taking their children to well child and preventive health check-ups on a regular basis to receive timely, preventative health care for their children.
- Provide information to parents regarding the importance of re-enrollment to maintain their health insurance coverage.
- Establish and maintain partnerships/relationships with local or regional AHCCCS and DES offices to remain current on eligibility or enrollment requirements that will maximize enrollment and renewal of public health insurance.
- Be prepared to provide information regarding how families can obtain low cost or free care in the event that they are not eligible for public health insurance.
- Maintain confidentiality of all information obtained as part of the outreach and enrollment process.
- Include opportunities for feedback from families into outreach and enrollment activities.
- Coordinate with existing health insurance outreach and enrollment assistance programs and activities occurring within a region.
- Establish and maintain connections to community-based organizations in the region that serve families and/or community-based organizations where the uninsured are likely to congregate or seek other services.
- Be accessible for families: offering extended service hours including weekend/evening hours or operating in locations where public transportation is accessible or where families with young children already congregate.
- Assure that staff receives specific training to carry out outreach and enrollment activities.

- Maintain confidentiality of all information obtained as a part of the outreach and enrollment process.
- Establish a system to ensure that families are informed of all of their health insurance enrollment options and assist families in choosing the appropriate plan to meet their individual family/child's needs.

III. Qualifications and training needs

Individuals providing outreach and enrollment assistance will:

- Be adequately trained on the Health-e- Arizona application procedure, the health insurance enrollment process, and the different insurance plan options.

IV. Cultural Competencies

Programs will also implement the following best practices and standards related to Cultural Competencies:

- To address cultural competency objectives, early childhood practitioners /early childhood service providers shall ensure that children and families receive from all staff members and program participants' effective, understandable, and respectful care that is provided in a culturally competent manner. Exhibit D

First Things First Target Service Unit Information Care Coordination/Medical Home

Unit of Service and related Target Service Number

A Unit of Service is a FTF designated indicator of performance specific to each FTF strategy. It is composed of a unit of measure and a number (Target Service Number).

A Unit of Measure/Service can be a target population and/or a service/product that a grantee is expected to serve as part of an agreement. Target Service Number represents the number of units (e.g. target population) proposed to be served or number of products/services proposed to be delivered during the contract year.

For example, for the FTF strategy Home Visitation the FTF Unit of Service is “number of families served” and a Target Service Number of 50 represents the number of families the program proposes to serve during the contract period. All FTF applicants must clearly state in the proposal a target service number for each strategy specific Unit of Service.

For Care Coordination/Medical Home, the Unit of Service is:

Number of children served

Determining and Interpreting Target Service Numbers

Number of children served should reflect all children proposed to receive services for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year). This number should reflect a total headcount (aggregate) of children to receive services, including current caseload and potential enrollment within the contract period. Please note this may be a duplicated count since it is possible for a child to discontinue (disenroll) and re-enroll to receive services during the same grant contract period.

Performance Measures

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e. Unit of Service); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. Performance measures may include the level or type of program activities conducted (e.g. serving families/children through home visits) and/or the direct services and products delivered by a program (e.g. providing scholarships).

For Care Coordination/Medical Home, the performance measures are:

Number of children served/ proposed service number

Number of written care plans completed

Number of families receiving referrals for health insurance enrollment

Number of referrals for health and human service providers

For Developmental and Sensory Screening, the Units of Service are:

- Number of developmental screenings conducted
- Number of vision screenings conducted
- Number of hearing screenings conducted
- Number of children receiving screening

Determining and Interpreting Target Service Numbers

Number of developmental screenings conducted should reflect the total number of screenings conducted on children (0- 5years)for developmental delays for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year) and will be a ticker count of total developmental delay screenings conducted within a contract period.

Number of vision screenings conducted should reflect the total number of vision screenings conducted on children (0- 5years)for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year) and will be a ticker count of total vision screenings conducted within a contract period.

Number of hearing screenings conducted should reflect the total number of hearing screenings conducted on children (0- 5years)for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year) and will be a ticker count of total hearing screenings conducted within a contract period.

Number of children receiving screening should reflect the total unduplicated count of children (0-5 years) targeted to receive screening (developmental delay, hearing and/ or vision) during one grant contract period (in most cases, one year).

Performance Measures

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e. Unit of Service); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. Performance measures may include the

Determining and Interpreting Target Service Numbers

Number of families served should reflect the total number of families proposed to receive enrollment assistance (support) to obtain health insurance for one grant contract period (in most cases, one year). This number should reflect a total (aggregate) count of all families to receive services, including current caseload and potential enrollment within the contract period. Please note this may be a duplicated count since it is possible for the same family to receive assistance multiple times during the same grant contract period (e.g. renewal or new insurance).

Performance Measures

Performance Measures measure (1) key indicators of performance (i.e. Unit of Service); (2) basic implementation of strategy; (3) alignment of program activities to strategy specific standards of practice, (4) performance or progress toward pre-established strategic goals. For Health Insurance Enrollment, the performance measures are:

Number of families served /proposed service number

Number of people reached by public awareness activities

Number of families referred to other providers of low-cost or no-cost health care coverage

First Things First - Arizona Early Childhood Development and Health Board Data Security Guidelines and Requirements for Collaborators

BACKGROUND:

The purpose of the Arizona Early Childhood Development and Health Board (First Things First - FTF) is to aid in the creation of a system that offers opportunities and support for families and communities in the development of all children, so they can grow up healthy and ready to succeed. Our work is accountable and transparent to decision-makers and the citizens of Arizona. Collaboration and direct funding of grantees to undertake work on behalf of the children and families of Arizona is fundamental to the purpose and mission of FTF. Regular submission of data related to funded work is an important part of ensuring accountability and maximum positive impact for young children, as well as a material condition of receiving FTF grant funding.

Data Security Guidelines for Data Submission to FTF

First Things First will ensure that resources allocated have maximum impact for the benefit of children and families. To ensure this accountability, FTF has established data reporting requirements for all state and regional grantees. All funded providers shall regularly submit programmatic and financial reports as identified in the FTF reporting requirements.

FTF data submissions are classified in one of three levels:

- Public data
- Limited distribution data
- Confidential data

The majority of FTF reporting submissions are completed through the FTF Partner and Grants Management System (PGMS). Subsequent to the award of an FTF grant, the grantee will receive general training on login and navigation within the PGMS system. With this login, the grantee will be able to manage their contract information. An additional training on strategy-specific data submission requirements will also be conducted. During that training, the grantee will be informed on submission of data reporting requirements through PGMS. All data submitted through PGMS is public data or limited distribution data. Because PGMS is located in a secure extranet environment, grantees using PGMS for data submission are not required to undertake additional security measures related to their data submission above those identified in the general and data submission orientations (password and login security, guidelines for upload of narrative and other reports).

A small group of grantees submit data requirements, with an agreement between the grantee and FTF, through an established secure web service or FTP (File Transfer Protocol) site via the internet, rather than a PGMS web-based entry form. Such data is likely to contain limited distribution data and shall adhere to the following protocols. Grantees that submit data through the secure web service must submit data within the established data structures and format; follow all login procedures; submit a formal data change request form if needed; and ensure that limited distribution data may not be intercepted or viewed at any time by parties other than the grantee and FTF. Additionally, Grantee must ensure that throughout the reporting and submission process the data is secured, and that any confidential data is de-identified and/or encrypted.

Any grantee submitting data identified as confidential must file a formal data security policy with FTF.

Data Security Guidelines for Grantee Maintenance of Data

In order to submit data to FTF in fulfillment of reporting requirements, grantees shall keep all data collected for their program(s) within their system (database) or hardcopies. Grantee data is likely to contain highly sensitive information on individuals, their education and their health. These guidelines and requirements are for the maintenance of those data.

All grantees must have a data security policy in force that identifies how the organization ensures that data is protected in all its forms, during all phases of its life cycle, from inappropriate access, use, modification, disclosure, or destruction.

All grantees subject to HIPAA, FERPA, GITA, tribal law, or other data regulation, are required to submit and maintain those approvals for all data.

Data Permission Guidelines for Grantee Data

All grantees must be prepared for FTF review of client-level data (e.g. child-level, teacher-level, or early care and education provider-level) during on-site visits. Additionally, FTF data reporting requirements may include submission of client-level data (e.g. child-level, teacher-level, or early care and education provider-level). The grantee agrees to allow FTF to access such data. Should the data be subject to HIPAA, the grantee agrees to enter into FTF's HIPAA Business Associate Agreement.

To inform clients of FTF's reporting requirements, all grantees must include in their client enrollment forms the statement: "To comply with reporting requirements of the funding source, I grant permission to [insert grantee organizational name] to release background, service, and impact related information to the Arizona Early Childhood Development and Health Board, also known as First Things First." The grantee warrants to FTF that prior to entering into the grant agreement for FTF funding, it has appropriately enquired and satisfied itself that it has the ability and authority comply with the requirements of this section.

Grantees Serving Clients on Tribal Lands

First Things First honors tribal ownership of data and recognizes communication is necessary with Arizona Tribes to determine what process/protocol is needed to obtain data. FTF further recognizes Arizona Tribes as owners of their indigenous knowledge, cultural resources and intellectual property. To this end, it is imperative that all appropriate tribal approvals for data collection and submission to FTF must be obtained and kept on-file by the grantee and FTF for granting serving clients on tribal lands.

Compliance with Data Security Guidelines

The grantee acknowledges that failure to comply with any requirement of these Data Security Guidelines shall be a material breach of the grant agreement.
